

ENERGIZING SASKATCHEWAN

Discussion Series

Prairie Policy Centre invites you to a discussion on:

How to find relief from those recurring gas pains

... and other lessons I've learned as a private sector natural gas supplier in Saskatchewan.

Roger Magneson, President, CEG Energy Options Inc

As a private sector natural gas supplier for the past 20 years, CEG has helped over 15,000 customers benefit from deregulation of the natural gas market. He comes to the Prairie Centre to share some thoughts on the future of natural gas and how everyone could benefit from a little more competition.

Wednesday November 15, 2006

7:30 – 9:00 am

Sheraton Cavalier, Saskatoon

Tickets: $25.00 (GST and meal included)

Return via fax to Laurel Reich at (306)242-1329 or register on-line at www.prairiecentre.com

Join us and you could receive immediate relief from those winter gas pains!

CEG Energy Options will be making a business card draw at the end of the presentation and some lucky home owner will see their residential natural gas bill disappear for a year!
(You must be in attendance to win)

Energizing Saskatchewan is a Prairie Policy Centre public education initiative designed to investigate public policy and public perception as it relates to energy sources in Saskatchewan. By researching, educating and communicating energy options, Energizing Saskatchewan will help everyone make the best energy choices for themselves and their province.

The Prairie Policy Centre is an independent public policy think tank whose mission is "to advance ideas on wealth creation in order to enhance the economic and social well being of the prairie region."
