Immigration: making it work in Manitoba

Star – 7 International is a very successful immigration consulting firm located in Winkler Manitoba. Company President, Adele Dyck, along with a staff of 12 immigration specialists, has been adding significantly to the population of Manitoba since 1996.

Adele and her staff have worked with over 200 employers in more than 20 communities in Manitoba and have brought some 800+ families to Manitoba with several hundred more currently in process. These families come from over 40 different countries, with the majority coming from Germany, and bring with them skills in many trades, as well as trucking and heavy equipment operation.

Star-7 works with clients, employers and the province creating a win-win-win. With streamlined procedures, they offer full service to potential immigrants from application, through to successfully settling in Manitoba. Assistance is provided for housing, language classes, obtaining a driver's license to registering children for school, and all the myriad of details involved in settling a family in a new country.

Manitoba attracted some 4000 immigrants in 2004, compared to some 300 in Saskatchewan. In 2005, the Manitoba numbers have increased to 8500. Come and find out why!
